

My name is Erica Brooks and I am writing on behalf of Issues Concerning Athletes, a real estate venture that targets professional athletes. On Feb 28, 2019 we will team up with Amyloidosis Support Groups to host the Ninth Annual Celebrity Bartending Night. The event will take place at Wasted Grain in Scottsdale, Arizona.

My co-host this year is MLB Billy Hamilton (Kansas City Royals). Some of our former bartenders include the likes of Justin Upton, Anthony Rizzo, Joe Nathan, Rick Sutcliff, Paul Goldschmidt, Yasiel Puig, Aroldis Chapman and Todd Frazier.

We will be hosting several Major Leaguers and other local guests at this unique event. I am reaching out to you in hopes that you will support our mission. No question the event will give your business great exposure with our guests, and with local and national media. Our press releases go out to thousands of media outlets prior to the event creating great buzz.

Our emcee for the night is Daron Sutton (former Arizona Diamondbacks announcer).

Please let me know if you would be interested in supporting this cause.

I ask that you consider donating an item for our silent auction, our raffle, or for our VIP gift bags.

Supporting this event will cement your standing as a pillar of charity in our community, gain media attention, and command important attention for your brand.

About our Charity:

Amyloidosis Support Groups:

Formed for the primary purpose of starting and maintaining Amyloidosis Support Groups throughout the United States, ASG is dedicated to providing peer group support to patients, caregivers, families and friends of those touched by this life threatening disease.
