North Clayton MS Wins Second Consecutive State Football Title

The Tigers defeated John Lewis Middle School of Atlanta to earn the championship

JONESBORO - Clayton County Public Schools (CCPS) is proud to announce that for the second consecutive year, the North Clayton Middle School (NCMS) Tigers are champions of middle school football for the state of Georgia!

On Saturday, November 25, the Tigers defeated Eagle's Landing Middle School of the Henry County School District in the semifinal game by a score of 29-13, and followed it with a solid victory of 40-6 over John Lewis Middle School of Atlanta Public Schools in the championship game. The victory in the title game came on the heels of the team's second consecutive Clayton County Middle School Championship.

North Clayton Middle School Tigers are now on an incredible 22-game winning streak. The Tigers are led by Coach Corey Washington. Coach Washington has built a dynamic coaching staff that is committed to fully supporting our athletes, in the classroom and on the field of play. They have taught our players about work ethic, family, pride, and commitment.

This championship win is a major victory for North Clayton Middle School and for Clayton County Public Schools. It displays the quality of programs that are being developed in our district. A middle school football dynasty only means great things to come at the high school level. Principal Shakeria Chaney and the entire 30349 Community is beyond proud of the team's accomplishments. Congratulations again to our state Champions!
